ELKS LODGE #351 GIVES GIFT OF KNOWLEDGE

On Friday, September 21, 2012, Elks Lodge #351 of Staunton donated 80 dictionaries to Bessie Weller Elementary School's 3rd grade students and teachers. Nancy Dickerson and Paul Hiveley of the Elks Lodge were present to hand out the dictionaries to eager students. Earlier this month, the Lodge also donated dictionaries to 3rd grade students and teachers at Ware and McSwain Elementary Schools. "The dictionary was one of the most important books I used in school." Mr. Hiveley said to the students. The students were pleased to have their own personal copy of the dictionary to use in their work at school and at home. Staunton City Schools is very appreciative of the generosity of Elks Lodge #351 and its members.

Rory Pecor, 3rd grade student at Bessie Weller admires her new dictionary.
