

October 5, 2012 - Lee High's Key Club Sponsors Blood Drive

Contact: Rodney Morris
Assistant Principal
332-3926
rmorris@staunton.k12.va.us

LEE HIGH'S KEY CLUB SPONSORS BLOOD DRIVE

Staunton, VA – On Thursday, October 4, the Key Club of Robert E. Lee High held a Blood Drive in the school auditorium from 9:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. The Key Club holds at least one Blood Drive every year. With parent permission, Lee High students who are at least 16 years old are permitted to participate in the Blood Drive. The Key Club sponsor, Mrs. Jacqueline Kurtz said, “I am always impressed by the level of civic-mindedness of our students and how many of them come out for the Blood Drive”. The Blood Drive was conducted by the Virginia Blood Services of Charlottesville, Virginia. Representatives from the local chapter of the Kiwanis organization were on hand to support the activity.

The Robert E. Lee High School Key Club is a junior organization of Kiwanis International, and a sister organization to Circle K at Mary Baldwin College and to the Builders Club at Shelburne Middle School. The mission statement of the Key Club is the following: Key Club is fun and service...we are an international student-led organization which provides its members opportunities to provide service, build character, and develop leadership. The Robert E. Lee High School Key Club is very active and participates in numerous service activities throughout the year.

Lee student, Ben Shiflett participates in the Key Club's Blood Drive.

Lee students register with a Virginia Blood Services representative.