The University of Virginia’s Curry School of Education offers degree and certificate programs at our off-Grounds locations around the state, and through our extensive online course offerings.

Our Gifted Education course series is provided entirely online leading to endorsement. This series is outstanding in its ability to prepare teachers and administrators to address the characteristics and needs of gifted children from diverse populations. The topics include an overview of issues in the definition of giftedness, identification, curriculum, instructional strategies, program options, special populations, and evaluations.

The four courses offered for Gifted Endorsement are:

- Introductory Strategies for Gifted Education
- Introduction to Models and Strategies for Teaching the Gifted
- Differentiation of Curriculum and Instruction: Emphasis on Gifted
- Developing and Implementing Curriculum for the Gifted

We also have Ed.S, Ed.D, M.Ed, Certificates, and course series leading to add-on Endorsement within the following Programs:

- Administration & Supervision
- English Language Learners – course series entirely online
- Gifted Education – course series entirely online
- Professional Studies
- Reading Education – programs entirely online (except clinicals)
- Social Foundations
- Special Education

The Curry School has Centers for face-to-face instruction in Falls Church, Richmond, Newport News, Roanoke and Abingdon.
