SCS TEACHERS AND SUPPORT STAFF PERSONS OF THE YEAR NAMED

Staunton City Schools is pleased to announce the Teachers of the Year and the Support Staff Persons of the Year for 2017. The honorees in both categories are chosen by their peers, making this recognition even more meaningful for the recipients.

The teachers of the year are: Bill Terry, history teacher at Lee High; Melissa Cooper, history teacher at Shelburne Middle; Gina Gaines, art teacher at Genesis Alternative Education Program; Stephen Peters, 5th grade math and science teacher at Bessie Weller Elementary; Angie Humphrey, kindergarten teacher at McSwain Elementary; and Tiffany Eimers, special education teacher at Ware Elementary.

Recognized as the support staff persons of the year are: Krissy Roudabush, custodian at Lee High; Chris Fountain, instructional assistant at Shelburne Middle; Candra Halterman, cafeteria manager at Bessie Weller Elementary; Leslie Burdick, instructional assistant at McSwain Elementary; Lisa Morris, instructional assistant at Ware Elementary; Jeramie Fortune, Maintenance Department; Dwayne Burns, Transportation Department; and Sandy Reavis, cafeteria manager at Dixon Educational Center.

“Each of these employees exemplifies a commitment and dedication to the mission of SCS. Their passion for the work they do and their love for students is representative of the many outstanding employees we have in our school division,” said Dr. Linda Reviea, Superintendent. “The success of our school division is a collaborative effort of all staff. We appreciate the contributions of these valued employees as we strive for excellence each day.”

These honorees were recognized by the School Board at the meeting held on April 10. The division honorees will be announced in late April and recognized by the School Board at the May 8 meeting.
